

Chinese Journal of Australian Studies

Call for Submissions

The Chinese Journal of Australian Studies is the journal of the Chinese Association for Australian Studies. It is a refereed biannual journal which publishes scholarly articles and reviews on Australian politics, economy, society, education, culture, literature, history and art. The editorial board consists of scholars of Australian studies from across China and Australia. The Chinese Journal of Australian Studies welcomes multi- and interdisciplinary work.

The Chinese Journal of Australian Studies is managed by the Australian Studies Centre at Beijing Foreign Studies University. The editor-in-chief is Professor Sun Youzhong at Beijing Foreign Studies University and the associate editor-in-chief is Associate Professor Chen Hong at East China Normal University. The managing editor is Mr. Li Jianjun at Beijing Foreign Studies University.

The Chinese Journal of Australian Studies is published by the Social Sciences Academic Press (China) and is financially supported by Beijing Foreign Studies University and Foundation for Australian Studies in China (FASIC).

SUBMISSION

1. Manuscripts are accepted in both English and Chinese. Australian English spelling and punctuation are preferred (refer to Macquarie Dictionary).
2. All authors of a manuscript should include their full names, affiliations, postal addresses, telephone numbers and email addresses on the cover page of the manuscript. Please supply a short biographical note (50-100 words) for each author.
3. A typical manuscript should not exceed 10,000 words (the preferred length is 6,000-8,000 words including footnotes). Abstracts of 200 words and 4- 6 keywords are required for all manuscripts submitted. Book reviews in English should be between 800-1,000 words.
4. All manuscripts should be original work, not previously published nor currently being considered elsewhere for publication.
5. All manuscripts should use footnotes. Book reviews should not contain footnotes.
6. Send your manuscripts or enquiries to australianstudies@bfsu.edu.cn